The Genesis of Pankaj Mullick Music & Art Foundation (PMMAF)

Pankaj Mullick Music & Art Foundation (PMMAF) was established as a registered Non-Profit Trust in 2005 to mark the birth centenary of legendary singer-composer-actor Pankaj Kumar Mullick

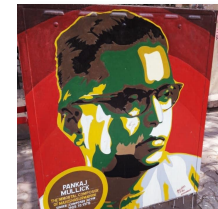

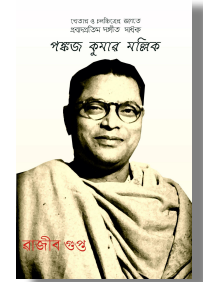

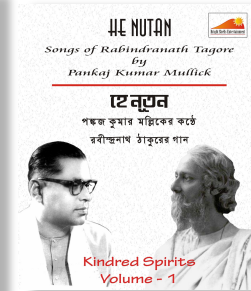

The initial objective of the Foundation was to preserve and promote the myriad works of Pankaj Mullick comprising his songs and compositions, his films and his writings among others.

The purpose of the Foundation later became broadbased to include the propagation of the rich cultural heritage of India, with a focus on Bengal

PMMAF ~ Plans For The Days Ahead

The COVID Pandemic has wreaked havoc across the world and has forced every organization to rethink their strategies for the future ahead. PMMAF, adapting to the requirements of the times, has been organizing online events and conducting online workshops for quite a few months now. In the days ahead PMMAF, apart from continuing with its online activities, is gearing up to launch an institute for skill development and re-skilling ranging from soft skills to handicrafts to create job opportunities, in a virus ravaged world, for artistes, artisans and workers alike.
